

Light IQ were honoured to receive this year's Gibbs' Award for outstanding achievement in the interior design industry. The award was presented by John Gibbs at this year's KLC School of Design Awards Ceremony, which was held at the RIBA.

We were also delighted to present the Light IQ Award for Lighting Design at this ceremony. The winner of this year's award was Certificate student Victoria Lee for her innovative ideas and excellent attention to detail.