

What are you working on at the moment?

Residential projects including villas in the West Indies, Suisse Chalets, a new build in the South of France, gardens, two restaurants and a boat.

Rebecca Weir is principal at LightIQ

What job are you most proud of?

About 90 per cent of them: the ones that have not been interfered with!

What projects do you wish you had done?

Abu Dhabi's Grand Mosque.

Favourite piece of lighting gear?

Light Graphix LD246 and PhotonStar's new downlights.

Best advice you were ever given?

You are master of your own destiny. Enjoy the moment, life's short!

Alternative career?

Professional windsurfer.

What do your colleagues think of you?

"Inspirational, capable and perceptive," they said (kindly).

Favourite building?

Ice cream van – portable pleasure to many.

Designers you admire?

Sally Storey, Bruce Munro and James Turrell.